Dear Lisa Hashemian:

The Practical nurse program at Alia Healthcare was unable to begin the new nursing program on its scheduled date of August 23, 2021 due to the restraints of the COVID-19 virus. Clinical agencies were not available for students thus the clinical obligations could not be met.

The new requested start date for the program is March 7, 2022 with an approximate end date of February 15, 2023.

Sincerely yours,

Cathy A Learn RN, MSN, MA

Lisa,

Due to the continuation of the current pandemic and the hesitation of clinical sites to accept our students, we have decided that it would be in the best interest of the PN Program that we postpone its start date to Spring 2022. We will should have start/completion dates by the end of October 2021. Thank you for your understanding.
